

Militia Immaculatae 2 — Mission for Russia

‘The moment has come when God asks the Holy Father to make, in union with all the bishops of the world, the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, promising to save it by this means.’

Our Lady to Sr. Lucia, Tuy, 13th June 1929

The Statutes

2. The First Patron is St. Maximilian Maria Kolbe, the founder of the Knights of the Immaculata. Saint Maximilian desired to make the apostolate in Russia, he wanted to publish “Knight of the Immaculata” in the Russian language. In 1931 he wrote: “I believe that her banner will be hoisted up even over the Kremlin; that she will be truly the Queen of every heart and that in every heart she will install Divine Love, the love of the Heart of Jesus. Then the goal of the M.I. will be achieved.”

3. A complementary Patron is St Andrew (Andrzej) Bobola, the martyr, who converted many souls from the Eastern Orthodox to Catholicism. The Orthodox did not like his missionary apostolate and he was cruelly murdered by Cossacks on 16th May 1657.
